Acknowledgements

The data for this volume were collected thanks to the financial support provided by the Italian Ministry for University & Research national grant (PRIN) No. 2005144341. Earlier and preliminary versions of some chapters were presented as working papers at three International Studies Association (ISA) conferences in 2006, 2007 and 2008. We would like to thank all the colleagues that at those conferences and elsewhere provided comments and remarks, in particular Matthew Evangelista, Hanns Maull, R. Craig Nation, Angelo Panebianco and Bertjan Verbeek. The volume's ideas and all the chapters have been conceived and thoroughly discussed collectively by the three authors. However, Chapter 1 was written by Piero Ignazi, Chapter 2 largely by Fabrizio Coticchia with the help of Giampiero Giacomello, Chapters 3 and 4 by Fabrizio Coticchia, and finally Chapter 5 by Giampiero Giacomello. The Introduction and the Conclusion are collective enterprises, while Gianmarco Badialetti wrote the Afterword.

We would like to express our appreciation to Chiara Alleva for the interviews, Simona Jacopetti, who helped with the content analysis, Andrea Bizzari, Veronica Lenzi and Gianluca Pescaroli for the bibliographical research and support, and Palgrave Macmillan's anonymous reviewer, whose insightful remarks and observations helped us improve the quality of this volume. We also wish to thank William J. Burke, Matthew Carroll, Jennifer Crawford, Samuel George, Britt Sylvester, David Bull and Dr Lee M. Miller for their invaluable assistance with the language editing.

Fabrizio Coticchia would like to thank Andrea de Guttry and Francesco Strazzari for their academic support. Above all Fabrizio is grateful to his wife and parents for their never-ending confidence. Last (but not least, as they say) Giampiero Giacomello would like to thank Angela, Jacopo and Emma Michela (for 'just being there').
